What past participants are saying about the Mastering Trade Policy program:

“The mix of three excellent and truly complementing lecturers, an insightful curriculum, and an intense program made this course an absolute must for leaders across the world.”

“Participants from a wide range of countries... These contacts will provide a useful network as several are involved in ongoing trade negotiations relevant for my region.”

“Extremely well presented and synthesized. The best presentations of complex economic theory and insights I have heard...Very important for a non-economist like myself.”

“This program, chaired by Robert Lawrence provides incredible insight on the trading system. It combines ground level practical information with high level view of government and policymakers. This has been a transformational experience.”

“The program was very useful and rewarding. It was well planned, well organized and well managed. I feel that my capacity in the fields of trade policy and trade facilitation has increased significantly.”

“Very valuable learning experience as it allowed me to deepen my understanding for many topics of my daily work as well as the "bigger picture".”

“The course provided a range of insights into the challenges of current trade negotiations (DDA and RTAs). The experience of the faculty members in US politics provided useful insights into the dynamics and problems of policy making. The exchange of views between participants from industrialised and developing countries put traditional positions into perspective.”

“Very inspirational and multi-faceted... Has given me the optimal basics for deciding whether I should seek a strong trade-orientation in my future career.”
